An Akron Druggist Brought Back to Health By Peruna.

Wm. Vogel, 867 May St., Akron, Ohio, writes:

"I was in the drug business six years in Columbus, Ohio, and was among the unfortunates in that great disastrous flood of the West Side, a year ago last March. Nearly all of the one hundred that perished in that flood were friends or patrons."

"Through cold and exposure and improper food during the flood, I was taken with appendicitis and acute intestinal catarrh. In June and July my life was despaired of, but recovered sufficiently to be up and around. My bowels seemed paralyzed. Was compelled to use injections once or twice a day. Could eat no solid food."

"The first of last December I decided to try Peruna. My bowels began to move at once, without the use of injection. Peristaltic action began to take place, and have not used an injection since. My appetite improved, and very soon solid foods could be taken. In two months time I gained 18 pounds. Now I am heavier than I ever was before."

Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

SUMMER BOONINGS ARE PLANNED

Norwich Elks are to Take Their Annual Festive Day On Aug. 11—Willimantic Lodge Will Send Ball Team—Norwich Grangers Going to Beach On Aug. 13.

Amid the galaxy of outings and picnics that take place in the course of the summer season there are some that by reason of their festive spirit and peculiar interest take precedence among the many. Such a one is the annual affair of the Norwich Elks.

The Elks' Outing on Aug. 11th. One of the members of the committee that has in hand the Elks' outing said on Wednesday that this year's affair was to depart in only one particular from the field days that have gone before—in other words, that the outing that is coming on August 11 is going to be the biggest and best ever, but otherwise just the same as of old. Of course, this is an anticipatory observation that is often made by arrangement committee leaders, but the personnel of their board of strategy and insight that superlatives are quite in order. For the committee has these members on it, Dennis J. Hayes, Ruth-erford C. Plant, J. D. Lucy, George Driscoll and John H. Carney; and they are planning to feature many events.

From New London they are to procure an expert to run the bake and on the athletic end of the programme a ball game between the Willimantic Elks and Norwich Elks is to be a down to Norwich, who are preparing to come back about three weeks hence. There is some debate about the rival attractions of Popetunuck drawbridge and Lincoln park and so the matter of location is not yet settled.

Grange for Atlantic Beach. Norwich Grange held its regular meeting on Wednesday evening in the Pythian hall with worthy Master E. C. Jewett presiding and while the session was not of unusual interest, besides the receiving of another new application and the exemplification of unwritten work, plans for the annual picnic were discussed with enthusiasm.

A suggestion was the date selected and the destination that seemed most suitable and promising was Atlantic Beach. The details of the excursion on that date were left to Elmore H. Berry, Charles A. Hagberg and County Agent Murray D. Lincoln.

Thirty-two members of the association and guests were present from various parts of the state and the occasion was a social one.

In attendance from Norwich were Costello Lippitt, Albert S. Comstock, Charles W. Gale and John C. Averill and their wives.

NEW LONDON'S OLD TOWN MILL.

It is Still in the Field After 260 Years and Grinding Out Quite a Bit of Grain.

To be accustomed to a thing is to forget, very often, its uniqueness and its attraction, says a New London writer. Those who have always been used to seeing the Old Town mill hold it as an accepted historic tradition, with its appropriate place in the guide books of the city, and it is left to the summer visitor, the sightseer, the seeker of ancient lore, or the lover of natural beauty to appreciate the true loveliness and unusualness of the place.

1650 is the date of erection, a date which means a scarcely settled country, newly tilled soil, and abundant Indians. Twenty-three years after the Winthrop house was still standing on the site of the present Winthrop school. But while the house was razed the mill was preserved, for not its attraction as a historic relic alone has kept it from destruction. Since its beginning the mill has been in active use and today the great wheel of 18 feet in diameter daily grinds the grain in the same spot as was done 260 years ago.

Of course the wood of the building has been frequently replaced; for instance, the roofing, porch and rafters are no longer the original. The huge door posts and supporting beams are hand hewn, are still the same. The present wheel has been in use nine years. It is itself a masterpiece of wheel making. The iron rods which hold the buckets in the center, each pass through the axle of the main shaft. The wheel is of the overshot sort and is of 18 horsepower.

Most of the grain ground at the mill, rye, barley, wheat and corn is shipped from the mill to the coast. Hay and straw are also handled, while shavings from the lumber yards on the river are baled and shipped as bedding and covering, such as used in the paths of Riverside park. Sawdust is also sold to the local meat market and grocers.

That the tiny mill is not merely a tradition is shown by the fact that the business is carried on in competition with three other wheel mills and land building is owned by the city, but the business itself, which is a relic of the past, has been owned for 25 years by George H. Sevin. At this time of the year from 10 to 100 visitors inspect the ancient mill daily, and scores of motor cars and automobiles arrive each day and the appreciation of the venerable structure and the shady glen with its splendid elms, is heartily expressed.

WORK OF THE UNITED STATES FOREST SERVICE

Description Given at White Mountains Forestry Conference.

Gorham, N. H., July 22.—A description of the progress of the work of the United States forest service in the new White Mountains reservation, by J. St. J. Benedict, forester in charge of the White Mountains Forestry conference, Prof. James W. Toumey, of the Yale Forest school, had prepared a paper on Forest Planting in New England As an Investment.

In his paper Prof. Toumey emphasized the need of specializing in the species of trees which have an established market for their lumber, chiefly by white and red pine. He said that only a small part of the waste and unused lands of New England met the requirements for a high grade individual investment when planted for lumber raising, and that such planting if done at all should be done by the state or the community. He declared that governmental and communal forests exercised a beneficial influence on the industrial, economic and social life of the community.

The annual meeting of the Society for Protection of New Hampshire Forests was held today. Various speakers told of the methods pursued on reservations acquired by the society.

MEXICAN FACTIONS ANXIOUS TO ARRANGE ARMISTICE

Fact Announced of Arrival of Flagship California at Mazatlan.

On Board U. S. S. California, Mazatlan, Mexico, July 22 (By wireless to San Diego, July 22).—On the arrival of the flagship California, here today, approaches were received from both the federal and constitutionalist camps indicating that the generals on both sides would be glad to meet on board the flagship or some other foreign cruiser, to arrange an armistice during a possible evacuation of the city by the federalists.

Six hundred troops of those who evacuated Guaymas recently are now known to have landed at Mazatlan, which would indicate a possible rear attack in conjunction with the troops at Mazatlan on the forces of Gen. Obregon.

POLICEMAN KILLED. MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR.

Shot Down in the Street at Burlington, New Jersey.

Burlington, N. J., July 22.—Thomas Regan, a policeman, was shot and killed on the street here early today by Winfield Templeton, a friend, who told the authorities that he had mistaken Regan for a burglar.

Templeton told the police that his wife woke him, telling him she heard noises on the sidewalk a few doors from their home; that he secured his shotgun and went to the front door of his home, and when he saw the figure of a man in the darkness standing in front of a grocery store he fired. Templeton, according to the police, said he was horrified to learn the identity of the man.

Regan, who was 40 years old, leaves a widow and five children.

WHY FAT RETURNS IF TAKEN OFF BY EXERCISE

Since fat is the result of particularly easy assimilation of food, which too readily turns into fatty substances, the exercise for reduction must be very vigorous to tear down the tissues and as rapidly as exercise builds a larger muscular foundation, more fat is developed. For the early part of the time when you are exercising flesh is turned into muscle, but the action of the stomach being unchanged and the flesh being more easily developed than muscle, it is not long until the exercise has increased the weight. Of late years, the slender form is possible without making oneself miserable by dieting or indulging in violent exercises to reduce fat. Make up and take this simple reducer and your weight will soon be just where you want it. Dissolve 4 ounces paraffin (which every good druggist has in his store) in 1 1/2 pints hot water; when it cools strain and take a tablespoonful before meals. This paraffin reducer acts gently, is quite harmless and entirely satisfactory results are quickly attained. It leaves the skin firm and well rounded.
